GRID Core Course Offered Spring 2026

Gender Relations in International Development, CGGE 581

Meets 01/20/26 - 05/06/26

Thursday, 2:00 pm - 4:50 pm

Location: 131 English Building
608 South Wright St, Urbana, IL

CRN: 78215

Course description: Students in this course acquire the theoretical and empirical skills required for understanding, evaluating, and critiquing development programs and policies. The core focus is on the gendered dimensions of such programs and policies. Theoretical skills are acquired through comparative analyses of competing models of development such as the capability approach, dependency theory, and neo-liberal theory. Empirical skills are built by critically evaluating national and international programs and policies related to education, health, nutrition, and agriculture as well as access to economic resources and the means of production. This course will be led by Professor Fogelman, C.
